LETTER OF AGREEMENT #1

NEWARK STATE COLLEGE AT UNION

For the Administrative Bulletin:

The following agreement was reached on August 2, 1973 between representatives of the NSFCT and representatives of the College Administration.

"It is agreed that a joint committee composed of two representatives from the College Administration and two representatives from the Newark State Federation of College Teachers be formed to review the matter of overload compensatory opportunities on the Union Campus."

"This Committee will submit its final recommendations to the NSFCT representatives and the College Contract Administration representatives on or before October 15, 1973."

"Campus overload assignments for the Spring Semester will be made subsequent to the filing of the Committee's report."
