

LETTER OF AGREEMENT #42

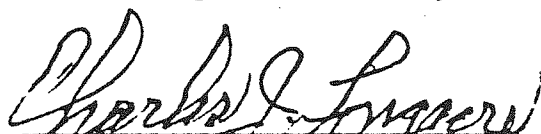

Kean College of New Jersey

Student Teaching Loading for Dual Experiences

Effective September 1977 student teaching for Physical Education which includes dual student teaching experiences in both elementary and secondary situations of one semester will be on the basis of six students at a minimum of two visits in each experience equated at three teaching credit hours. Students in these experiences shall be registered for no less than 10 semester hours of credit.

Should the Department of Fine Arts and/or the Department of Music restructure the student teaching experiences with the appropriate curriculum decision making approvals to result in dual student teaching experiences for a full semester with a minimum of two visits in each experience, for no less than ten semester hours of credit, then faculty loading will be six students for three teaching credit hours.
