UNION, NEW JERSEY

Letter of Agreement #79

The following agreement, including modifications to Item IV D of the Promotion and Retention form for librarians as attached, was reached on December 12, 1985 between representatives of the Kean College Federation of Teachers and the College Administration.

Recommendations made by the Library Personnel Committee shall be submitted in writing directly to the office of the Library Director, in accordance with the provisions specified in the Master Contract. Separate evaluations by Assistant or Associate Directors will not be part of the Library Personnel Committee process.

Candidates will be evaluated in writing by the Library Personnel Committee as a whole. No written assessments will be required from individual committee members.

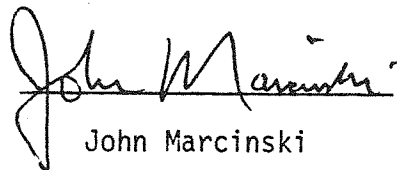

This Letter of Agreement shall supersede the relevant provisions of any previous Letter of Agreement and modify procedures contained in the present promotion/retention application form.
