

Letter of Agreement # 140

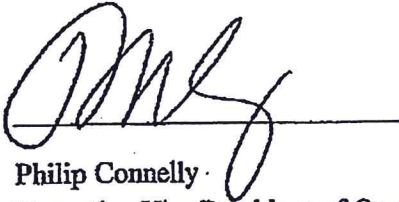

The Kean Federation of Teachers and the Kean University Administration have reached an agreement regarding the New WKU Admission Interview. As a result, the process will be conducted as follows:

1. WKU will establish a committee formed by three Faculty members for each group of students.
2. Each faculty member will spend an average of 5 hours (annually) interviewing and conducting the different activities within the admission process, which include and are not limited to interviews, group activities and writing revisions.
3. Faculty members that serve the committee will receive ¼ credits as compensation for completing such task.

This agreement should take effect immediately for a pilot project. Upon completion of the pilot project, the KFT and the University Administration will meet to examine the feasibility of continuing this agreement.
